5. Lecturer in Physics and Chemistry.—One post in the General Provincial Service in the scale of pay of Rs. 200—10—250—15—325—E.B.—15—400—10—450.

For all the posts mentioned above, the selected candidates will be—

- (i) entitled to get cost of living allowance as may be admissible under orders of the Government of Bihar for so long as these are in force.
- (ii) placed on probation for two years, and
- (iii) may be given a higher initial start within the prescribed scales if they are experienced and highly qualified.

They will have to join their posts immediately after appointment. The post of Professor of Pathology and Bacteriology is permanent and the remaining four posts are, at present, temporary but are likely to be made permanent. The appointments to temporary posts may terminate on one month's notice on either side. Government servants are also eligible. Women are not eligible.

2. Qualification and duties :—

(1) Professor of Pathology and Bacteriology.—A candidate must be a Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons and have post graduate training in Pathology and Bacteriology. Experience in teaching will be regarded as an additional qualification. The selected candidate will generally have to teach Pathology and Bacteriology to the degree course students and also to carry out research for which no extra remuneration will be allowed.

(2) Assistant Professor of Anatomy.—A candidate must be an M.R.C.V.S. or a graduate of recognised Indian Veterinary College with ten years' experience in teaching or allied work. Candidates should have post-graduate training in the subject. Amongst M.R.C.V.S. candidates, teaching experience will be regarded as an additional qualification. The selected candidate will generally have to teach anatomy to the students of the degree courses of the Bihar Veterinary College at Patna.

(3) Assistant Professor of Animal Husbandry.—A candidate must hold a degree or a diploma in Veterinary or Agricultural sciences with advanced training in Animal Husbandry and have teaching experience, practical experience of livestock management or a Veterinary hospital for a period of five years. The selected candidate will generally be required to teach Animal Husbandry to the students of the degree course.

(4) Assistant Professor of Biology.—A candidate should possess first or high second class M.Sc. degree in either Zoology or Botany and should have studied both these subjects for his B.Sc. degree and possess teaching experience. Research experience will be regarded as an additional qualification. The selected candidate will generally have to teach Biology to the students of the degree course.

(5) Lecturer in Physics and Chemistry.—A candidate should possess a first or second class M.Sc. degree in Chemistry and a B.Sc. degree with Physics and Chemistry. Teaching experience will be regarded as an additional qualification. The selected candidate will have to teach Physics and Chemistry.

Knowledge of Hindi is essential for all the posts. If in exceptional circumstances a candidate unacquainted with Hindi has got to be appointed, his selection will be provisional and his appointment will remain provisional for a period not exceeding six months within which he shall have to acquire a working knowledge of Hindi failing which his provisional appointment shall be cancelled.

3. A candidate for the posts mentioned above against nos. (1), (2) and (3) must not be over 40 years of age on the 1st August 1949. For the posts of Assistant Professor of Biology and Lecturer in Physics and Chemistry, a candidate should not be over 25 years of age on the 1st August 1949. This age limit of 25 years may, however, be relaxed in cases of experienced and suitable candidates. For these two posts the age limit of a candidate belonging to the Scheduled caste and Backward Tribes has been raised by three years and that of political sufferers by five years.

4. Other things being equal, preference will be given to one who is a native of, or, domiciled in the province of Bihar. The Provincial Government have decided to waive the domicile rules and age restriction in the case of refugee Government officers and others from Sind, Baluchistan, North-West Frontier Province and West Punjab.

5. Applications must be made to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, P.O. Hinoo, Ranchi, in the prescribed form so as to reach him on or before the 31st January 1950. Copies of the prescribed form may be obtained from the Secretary free on requisition.

6. Applications must be accompanied by true copies of :—

- (a) certificates and diplomas, duly attested by a gazetted officer, regarding candidates' qualifications and character ;
- (b) nature and extent of previous teaching and research experience, if any ;
- (c) In the case of candidates not already in permanent Government service, a medical certificate in the prescribed form, obtainable from the Secretary ;

- (d) evidence of age which should ordinarily be the attested copy of the Matriculation Certificate or its equivalent and a treasury chalan of Rs. 5/- as application fee, credited to the Government of Bihar, under the head "XXXVI-Miscellaneous—Miscellaneous Department—Provincial Examination Fees—Fees realised by the Public Service Commission";

Note No application fee will be payable if such a fee has been paid with the previous application for a similar post in the same service, but particulars of the occasion on which such a fee was paid must be given. The fee paid with the application will not ordinarily be refunded. War service and ex-I.N.A. candidates are exempted from the payment of application fee. The Commission may at its discretion, remit the prescribed application fee when it is satisfied that the applicant is a bona-fide refugee and is not in a position to pay the prescribed application fee. Candidates selected for interview may be required to produce their original certificates and testimonials at the time of interview.

- (e) in case of persons not already in Government service an evidence in the form of an acknowledgement from the District Officer of the district in which he ordinarily resides, or, in which he claims to be domiciled that he has not later than 14 days before the date fixed for the receipt of applications, requested that officer to report to the Commission before the said date whether his character and antecedents are such as to render him suitable for appointment to the Service for which he is a candidate.

Note.—While requesting the District Officer to furnish a report to the Commission on his character and antecedents, a candidate should furnish as references the names of two persons who know him in private life and are not near relatives. A candidate must not file written testimonials and the references furnished by him should not include College Professors or Principals unless they know the candidate at home.

For other particulars please see "Notes to the advertisement" obtainable on requisition from the undersigned.

Note.—Candidates are requested to give "full address" of their former and present employers while filling the last column of item No. 18 of the prescribed application form.
